Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is arranged in approximately 25 lines. The script is dense and characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century. The content appears to be a formal communication, possibly a letter or a record of a transaction, mentioning various locations and names. The text is written in a dark ink, and the paper shows signs of wear and discoloration.
