The American Embassy has the honor to enquire of the Imperial and Royal Ministry of Foreign Affairs what reply should be made to the enquiry made in the following telegram:

"Washington. Sept. 12. British Foreign office inquires of American Ambassador at London whether his charge of the Austro-Hungarian interests in Great Britain includes those of Liechtenstein and as to the position of Liechtenstein in the present war. Investigate and report on this matter as quickly as possible.
/sd/ Bryan Secretary of State"
